

In memory of James Dinnage

Rest you content

Words: Cyril Winterbotham (1887–1916), from a poem, 'The Cross of Wood'

Music: GRAHAM DINNAGE (b. 1957)

Elegiaco ♩ = 66

p

SOPRANO
God be with you and us who go our way_____ And

ALTO
God be with you and us who go our way_____

TENOR
God be with you and us who go our way_____

BASS
God be with you and us who go our way_____

p

Elegiaco ♩ = 66

for rehearsal only

5

leave you dead up - on the ground you won.

And leave you dead_____ up - on the ground you won.

And leave you dead, dead up - on the ground you won.

And leave you dead up - on the ground you won.

9 mp mf

For you at last the long fa - tigue is done,

mp mf

For you at last the long fa - tigue is done,

mp mf

For you at last the long fa - tigue is done,

mp mf

For you at last the long fa - tigue is done,

13 rit. pp

The hard march end - ed; you have rest to - day.

pp

The hard march end - ed; you have rest to - day.

pp

The hard march end - ed; you have rest to - day.

pp

The hard march end - ed; you have rest to - day.

rit. pp