About the composer

RANDALL SVANE (born 1955) has been active for the past 30 years as an organist, conductor, and teacher. He was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He holds a BM in organ performance from Manhattan School of Music and an MA in composition from New York University. Randall's distinguished and expressive music has captured the hearts and minds of audiences across the USA and Europe. The New York Philharmonic, the Orchestra da Camera Fiorentina in Florence, the Munich Chamber Choir, the Vratsa Philharmonic in Bulgaria, the Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, the Leipzig Vocal Ensemble, the Colonial Symphony, the Minneapolis Artists Ensemble, and the Borromeo String Quartet are just a few of those who have performed his works to critical and public acclaim. Randall was awarded First Prize in the 2014 Saint Thomas Church Fifth Avenue Composition Competition for his St Thomas Service.
