

PROMOTIONAL COPY
for reading only

Alan Thurlow

The Lord's Supper

for soprano solo and mixed voices, words by Eric Milner-White

ENCÔRE
publications

to Roger Chadwick

The Lord's Supper

Words: Eric Milner-White (1884–1964),
Eucharistic devotion from My God, my glory

Music: ALAN THURLOW
(b. 1947)

SOPRANO SOLO

$\text{♩} = \text{c.}60$

pre-pared by thy long-ing spread at thy com-

SOPRANO ALTO

pp

Lord, this is thy feast,

TENOR BASS

pp

- mand, at - tend - ed at thine in - vi - ta - tion.

PROMOTIONAL COPY
for reading only

blessed by thine own Word, dis - tri-but-ed by thine own.

SOPRANO ALTO

pp

Lord, this is thy feast,

TENOR BASS

pp

hand,

mp mf

th'un-dy-ing me-mo-rial of thy sa-cri-fice_ up-on the Cross, the full_

mp mf

rit.

gift of thine ev - er - last - ing love, and its per - petu - a - tion till time shall end.

f cresc. f

cresc. f

a tempo rit.

Bread of life, that, who-so eat-eth shall ne-ver hun-ger more.

p

Lord, this is Bread of heav'n,

p

a tempo

that, who - so

mp mf

And this the Cup of par-don, heal-ing, glad-ness, strength,

mp mf

rit.

senza dim.

a tempo

drink-eth, thirst-est not a - gain.

PROMOTIONAL COPY
for reading only

p

So may we come, O Lord, to thy

p

Ta - ble;

Lord Je - sus, come to us, to us.

Lord Je - sus, come to us.

pp ppp

pp ppp